MEDICINAL.

It Has Happened

More than once that a child has been carried off by an eagle. When such a thing does happen the press rings with the story. There's not a line given by the press to the babies carried off daily by disease. It isn't the fact of the child being taken away that is startling or interesting, it's only when the method of taking off is novel that it excites interest. How many children die who might have been saved if the mother who bore them had been able to give them strength and vitality. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes healthy mothers and healthy mothers have healthy children, strong enough to resist disease if they are attacked.

Mrs. Axel Kjer, of Gordonville, Cape Girardeau Co., Mo., writes: "When I look at my little boy I feel it my duty to write to you. This is my fifth child and the only one who came to maturity; the others having died from lack of nourishment, the doctor said. This time I put through 'I would try your 'Prescription.' I took six bottles and to my surprise it carried me through and gave me as fine a little boy as ever was. Weighed ten and one-half pounds. He is now five months old, has never been sick a day, and is so strong that everybody who sees him wonders at him."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy and regular.

DR. MOTT'S NERVE PILLS
Made This Change.
DO YOU suffer from Nervousness, Irritability, Loss of Sleep, Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Stomach Trouble, or any of the above? If so, you need Dr. Mott's Nerve Pills. They are the only pills that cure all these troubles. They are sold by all druggists.

CATARRH LOCAL AND CLIMATIC.
Nothing but a local remedy or a change of climate will cure Catarrh. The specific is Ely's Cream Balm. It is quick'y absorbed. Gives relief at once. Opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Always infallible. Heals and protects the membrane. Restores the sense of taste and smell. No mercury. No injurious drugs. Regular size, 50 cents; Family Size, $1.00, at Druggists, or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 66 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and get more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have in twenty years." Anderson Blaes of Sunny Lane, Tex. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Blaes.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cassaca Candy Cathartic, 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

CONVENTION NOMINEES.

The Richmond Dispatch gives the following among its sketches of its nominees of the State Convention. Mr. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax county, who was nominated for the convention last week, is one of the brightest of the younger Virginians in public life today. Although still quite a young man, he has served in the State Senate with distinction, and his name has been several times mentioned in connection with a seat in the Senate of the United States. His intellect, accomplishments as a lawyer, and, above all, his urbane manners and uniform courtesy have made him very popular with his people. He will assume a prominent place in the convention. He is a brilliant speaker and an able thinker.

Abert Fletcher, the Foster candidate from Loudoun and Fauquier counties, was born near Warrenton, on the 28th day of February, 1841. He attended school in Warrenton and in the neighborhood from his 7th year until he was nearly 14 years old, when he secured a clerkship with William C. Norris.

In a year or two Mr. Norris was succeeded by Marion English, who retained young Fletcher, finding his services of great value. He remained with Mr. English, until his military company, the Warrenton Rifles, was ordered out by the State of Virginia to do battle for the Confederate cause. He went with his company, which, on the organization of his regiment, with companies from other counties, constituted the famous Seventeenth Virginia regiment, Longstreet's Brigade.

Young Fletcher remained constantly in the service discharging his duties wherever assigned, to the satisfaction of his superior officers. In 1866 he returned to Warrenton, and was employed as a clerk until 1869, when he engaged in the mercantile business for himself.

By untiring energy and constant attention to his business, united with his excellent common sense, he soon attracted the attention of the community in which he operated, and naturally was very successful from the beginning. By continuing the habits of industry, sobriety, and attention to business which were instilled into his youth, coupled with his care in meeting his obligations with promptness, he has for years been considered the leading business man of the community in which he lives, and has been very successful. All who know him feel assured that he will render valuable service to his State and his immediate constituents in the constitutional convention.

SHE OUTSHOT HATFIELD.

A dispatch from Bluefield, W. Va. says: "Captain Hatfield, leader in the Hatfield-McCoy feud, who is supposed to be the best rifle and revolver shot in W. Va., was defeated by a woman, one of his family, in a shooting match Friday. Captain Hatfield was at Davy, near here, buying provisions and visiting his relatives, among whom is Mrs. Simon Kline, formerly a Hatfield, and a cousin of Captain Hatfield. She was made a widow by one of the many feud fights. Captain Hatfield, as usual, carried his Winchester, and after dinner at the home of his uncle, Anse, Jr., suggested that they have a little shooting match just to hear the rifle crack as they used to do.

At fifty paces a bit of white paper scarcely larger than one's thumbnail was placed on a tree and the shooting began. All took a shot and missed until it came Captain Hatfield's turn. He sent a steel bullet into the edge of the paper. Mrs. Kline had not shot and the women were not to be counted in the contest, but she insisted that she could beat the captain's shot.

He gave her the gun and she hit the center of the bit of paper. The captain remarked that he was beaten, but that it was done by a Hatfield. He turned to Mrs. Kline and taking her by the hand said: "It is in the blood and the eye and can't be washed out."

Trust those who have tried. I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind and never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that.—Oscar Ostrom, 44 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

I suffered from catarrh; it got so bad I could not work; I used Ely's Cream Balm and am entirely well.—A. C. Clarke, 341 Shawmut Ave., Boston, Mass.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cents or mailed by Ely Brothers, 66 Warren St., New York.

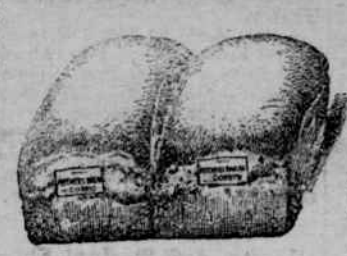

You will waste time if you try to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you do eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the result of years of scientific research for something that would digest not only some elements of food but every kind and it is the one remedy that will do it.

Educate Your Bowels With Cassaca. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 25c. M.C.C.C. fail, druggists refund money.
